CR 05-00613 CRB

1 The United States of America, by and through his counsel Kevin V. Ryan, United States
2 Attorney for the Northern District of California and Peter B. Axelrod, Assistant United States
3 Attorney and all defendants, by and through their counsel of record hereby agree as follows:

4 A. Draft Transcripts

5 That at defense request, the United States has agreed to provide draft copies of the transcripts
6 of the recorded conversations. These draft transcripts are the in electronic form.

7 All parties agree that the draft transcripts may contain errors with respect to the transcription
8 of the material on the recording, date and time of the call, spelling, the identification of speakers
9 or voices, or translation of phrases from foreign languages or code into the English language. All 10 parties further agree that the draft transcripts prepared by the government will not be used in any 11 manner to impeach the final transcript at any hearing or at trial. Further, all parties agree that the 12 draft transcripts will not be used by the defense to question or cross-examine any witness at any 13 hearing or trial concerning the content or preparation of the transcripts, voice identification or 14 translation.

15 Further, all parties stipulate and agree that in order to prepare a stipulated set of transcripts 16 for the jury at trial the following procedure shall be used by the defense to identify portions of the 17 transcripts as to which they disagree. The defense shall deliver to the United States the hard copy 18 of the government transcript containing the defense proposed changes. The proposed changes to 19 the transcript shall be hand written on the government draft transcript clearly indicating the
